All would change if ...

All would change if man could once consent to be spiritualised; but his nature, mental and vital and physical, is rebellious to the higher law. He loves his imperfection.

- Sri Aurobindo

“If man could once consent to be spiritualised”. If only the individual could consent to be spiritualised ... could consent.

Something in him asks for it, aspires, and all the rest refuses, wants to continue to be what it is: the mixed ore which needs to be cast into the furnace.

At the moment we are at a decisive turning-point in the history of the earth, once again. From every side I am asked, “What is going to happen?” Everywhere there is anguish, expectation, fear. “What is going to happen?...” There is only one reply: “If only man could consent to be spiritualised.”

And perhaps it would be enough if some individuals became pure gold, for this would be enough to change the course of events.... We are faced with this necessity in a very urgent way.

This courage, this heroism which the Divine wants of us, why not use it to fight against one’s own difficulties, one’s own imperfections, one’s own obscurities? Why not heroically face the furnace of inner purification so that it does not become necessary to pass once more through one of those terrible, gigantic destructions which plunge an entire civilisation into darkness?

This is the problem before us. It is for each one to solve it in his own way.

This evening I am answering the questions I have been asked, and my reply is that of Sri Aurobindo: If man could once consent to be spiritualised

And I add : Time presses ... from the human point of view.

No protection, no Grace can save those who refuse the indispensable purification.

What then do I seek ?

I seek a light that shall be new, yet old, the oldest indeed of all lights.

*I seek an authority that accepting, illuminating and reconciling
all human truth, shall yet reject and get rid of
by explaining it all mere human error.*

*I seek a text and a Shastra that is not subject to interpolation, modification and replacement,
that moth and white ant cannot destroy,
that the earth cannot bury nor time mutilate.*

I seek an asceticism that shall give me purity and deliverance from self and from ignorance without stultifying God and His universe

*I seek a scepticism that shall question everything but shall have the patience to deny nothing
that may possibly be true.*

I seek a rationalism not proceeding on the untenable supposition that all the centuries of man's history except the nineteenth were centuries of folly and superstition, but bent on discovering truth instead of limiting inquiry by a new dogmatism, obscurantism and furious intolerance which it chooses to call common sense and enlightenment;

I seek a materialism that shall recognise matter and use it without being its slave.

*I seek an occultism that shall bring out all its processes and proofs into the light of day without mystery, without jugglery, without the old stupid call to humanity,
"Be blind, O man, and see!"*

*In short, I seek not science, not religion, not Theosophy, but Veda \bar{O} the truth about Brahman, not only about His essentiality, but about His manifestation, not a lamp on the way to the forest, but a light and a guide to joy and action in the world, the truth which is beyond opinion, the knowledge
which all thought strives after \bar{O} yasmin vijnate sarvam vijnatam.*

I believe that Veda to be the foundation of the Sanatan Dharma; I believe it to be the concealed divinity within Hinduism, \bar{O} but a veil has to be drawn aside, a curtain has to be lifted.

knowable and discoverable.*

I believe the future of India and the world to depend on its discovery and on its application, not to the renunciation of life, but to life in the world and among men.

..... When Asia once more becomes the theatre of the world's chief events, it is a sure sign that some great spiritual revolution, perhaps a great age of spirituality is preparing for humanity.
